

Today's Gift of Happiness

Smile...

No-thing really matters except your happiness and your love...and guess what...

They're yours for free!

You can choose both right here and right now...

All it takes is a change of mindset!

Think of the ten top things that make your heart sing. It could be your favourite song, having someone you love play with your hair, feeling the grass between your toes or finding fifty bucks!

Mmmm...feels good doesn't it?

Keep adding to your 'happy' list and use it every day!
